Biographical/Historical note

Virginia Dwan, born 1931, opened her first gallery in Los Angeles, California in 1959. In 1965, Virginia Dwan moved to New York City and founded an east coast branch of the Dwan Gallery. Her Los Angeles gallery continued to operate under the direction of art dealer John Weber, until he joined Virginia Dawn in New York City upon the California gallery's closing in 1967. Exhibitions at both branches of the Dwan Gallery showed notable Abstract Expressionist, Conceptualist, Nouveaux Realiste, Minimalist, and Land Art artists. Dwan provided early exposure for many of her artists, as well as significant financial support for avant-garde exhibitions and projects that were not commercially lucrative. The New York gallery remained in operation until 1971.
